Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation

District 8 Women's Summit Enjoyed by All

Every October women throughout District 8 gather to socialize, talk about issues relating to women in agriculture and tour local agriculture. This year they toured Munson Bridge Winery, enjoyed lunch at the Hayloft and learn first-hand how to be prepared if the unexpected happens.

This is just one of the many programs that women throughout the district and the state can take part in throughout the year! Please don't hesitate to contact Susan Brugger, District 8 Women's Committee Representative, for more details if this is something you are interested in learning more about!

District 8 Women's Committee Update

It has been an amazing year for District 8 Farm Bureau members! Whether you were a volunteer for the Helping Hands benefit or assisted with the Ronald McDonald House project District 8 Farm Bureau members made a difference for many through volunteer efforts. This continues with the collection of pop tabs for the Ronald McDonald House. The WFBF Women's Committee is asking members to continue to collect pop tabs as this makes an immeasurable difference for the families that utilize their facilities.

The WFBF Women's Committee would like to invite you to attend the Wisconsin Ag Women's Summit in Madison, March 13-14. It is a premier event for ladies to attend. Please contact me if you are interested in attending as we have done some carpooling in the past from District 8.

I wish your county Farm Bureau success as you plan for the coming year's activities.

PRICE COUNTY FARM BUREAU EDITION

Price County Farm Bureau Annual Meeting Wrap-Up

Did you know that once a year Price County Farm Bureau hosts an annual meeting for its members? This year was no exception. More than 20 members gathered in October to celebrate all of the county's accomplishments. Members listened to the state Ag in the Classroom Essay winner!

This once-a-year gathering is also a time for members to elect new directors to the board and vote on policy critical to our grassroots organization.

You Can Help Fun'd the WFB Foundation

What does the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Foundation do?

It supports agricultural education programs and develops agricultural leaders. Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the Foundation – we couldn't do it without members like you!

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau Foundation funds:

- Ag in the Classroom
- Young Farmer and Agriculturist Program
- Women's Program for Education and Leadership
- Farm Bureau leadership Institute
- Collegiate Farm Bureau chapters at UW-Madison, UW-Platteville and UW-River Falls

The Foundation also funds 4-H and FFA activities, scholarships for Leadership Wisconsin, Wisconsin Agri-business Council, Wisconsin Cranberry Discovery Center and the Wisconsin Agriculture Education and Workforce Development Council.

Did you know that you donate in memory or in honor of a loved one or just make a charitable donation? You can also support the Foundation by purchasing Farm Bureau member signs, Betty Engel note cards and children's books. If you are interested in learning more about how you can help this awesome program please contact Wendy Kannel at 608.828.5719 or visit wfbfoundation.com.

From the Desk of Don Radtke

Greetings from the state office and your Board of Directors! I wanted to share some of the great things Farm Bureau has been working on.

This year has been an interesting year with the passing and implementation of the Implements of Husbandry (IOH) legislation, and hopefully you were able to attend one of the informational meetings

Farm Bureau hosted along with the county UW-Extension offices. We encourage farmers to learn if their county and/or townships are requiring permits with regards to IOH. If you have comments or questions feel free to contact me.

Wisconsin Farm Bureau also worked on a strategic plan where we asked our members and affiliated companies (Rural Mutual Insurance and FS GROWMARK) via listening session around the state what they were thinking and where they envisioned Farm Bureau to be in the future. The core ideas that were brought forward from the listening sessions include:

- Building relationships/alliances with other ag or ag-related organizations that have the same interests that Farm Bureau has and how we can work together on issues.
- Improve teamwork and working together to better develop shared expectations of the board role.
- The board also recognized the need to use technology to be able to connect with members. They also agreed on the importance of 'modeling the way' if we are going to be asking members to improve their technology skills.
- Strengthening the WFB Foundation through new fundraising opportunities to continue funding programs such as the Young Farmer and Agriculturist, Women's Program and Ag in the Classroom. Fundraising efforts will be increasing as we move forward.

- Revision of the Farm Bureau Mission Statement to contain some reference to member benefits or services to members.
- Staying on the road to financial stability.

I encourage everyone to attend their respective county Farm Bureau annual meeting next year, as this is where the WFBF policies are created...at the grassroots. As always, please contact me at 715.573.7208 with any questions or concerns you may have regarding Farm Bureau.

Don Radtke
WFBF District 8 Board Director

WFBF Seeks Photos for Rural Route

Wisconsin Farm Bureau members live and work on some of the most beautiful pieces of land. In Rural Route WFBF would like to highlight those sights and special moments with your families and friends.

Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board Update

Did you know that the Wisconsin Milk

Marketing Board and the dairy farm families of Wisconsin offer special opportunities for Wisconsin schools? The Wisconsin Dairy Council (WDC), the school nutrition education division of the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board, works with Wisconsin's K-12 schools to offer free dairy and agriculture resources for Wisconsin classrooms. The WDC has a wide variety of programs designed for kindergarten through high school that help students understand how dairy helps grow their bodies and drives Wisconsin's economy.

Each lesson is presented by WDC staff and features interactive presentations, a dairy snack and great support materials for teachers and students. Plus each lesson meets several of the Wisconsin Academic Standards for a variety of subjects including social studies, health, nutrition, science and agriculture, food and natural resources. All presentations are free to Wisconsin schools. For more information visit wisconsinmilkmarketingboard.com, or contact, Beth Schaefer, Regional Program Manager for the Wisconsin Dairy Council, at bschaefer@wmmb.org.

District 8 Young Farmer and Agriculturist Update

District 8 YFA had a busy year. Many members were a part of the Helping Hands from the Heartland benefit. This brought together members from the counties for a wonderful cause. We had a nice turnout for the ice fishing gathering, even though no one caught any fish. In May we joined past Alices in Dairyland for a tour of Grassland and Munson Bridge Winery. We hosted a picnic following Farm Technology Days and had a tour of our farm. The District 8 YFA Discussion Meet had five very qualified contestants. We wish Melissa Ploeckelman - Marathon County, Ryan Prahll - Marathon County and MJ Zenner - Taylor County, good luck at the state competition. We thank those who attended the events throughout the year and are excited for 2015.

Herricks Dairy Farm Wins Wisconsin Leopold Conservation Award®

Sand County Foundation and Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation are proud to announce Herricks Dairy Farm is the recipient of Wisconsin's Leopold Conservation Award®. The award honors Wisconsin landowner achievement in voluntary stewardship and management of natural resources.

The announcement was made during the November 19 meeting of the Wisconsin Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection Board in Madison. An independent judging panel made the selection September 17.

Jack and Pat Herricks, along with their children and their families, operate a 600-cow dairy farm in Cashton in the rolling hills of Monroe County.

The Herricks have practiced no till farming since 1992 before many farmers had considered it.

Jack Herricks' decades-long commitment to conservation practices includes soil erosion control measures, reduction of runoff into area waterways, forestry management, enhancement of wildlife habitat and careful manure management.

"This is a great award," said Jack Herricks. "It recognizes the lifetime of efforts that we've practiced on our farm. But for me personally, it offers another venue to spread my conservation ethic to more people. And I really look forward to doing that."

"The Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation is proud to recognize Jack and Pat Herricks as this year's recipients," said Jim Holte, Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation President. "Their life-long conservation efforts inspire others and benefit our natural resources."

Given in honor of renowned conservationist Aldo Leopold, the Leopold Conservation Award recognizes extraordinary achievement in voluntary conservation. It inspires other landowners through these examples and provides a visible forum where farmers, ranchers and other private landowners are recognized as conservation leaders. In his influential 1949 book, A Sand County Almanac, Leopold called for an ethical relationship between people and the land they own and manage, which he called "an evolutionary possibility and an ecological necessity."

The 2014 Leopold Conservation Award will be presented December 7 at the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation's Annual Meeting in Wisconsin Dells. The award recipient will be presented with a crystal depicting Aldo Leopold and $10,000.

The Leopold Conservation Award in Wisconsin is made possible through the generous support of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation, Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board, Wisconsin Corn Growers Association, Badgerland Financial, Alliant Energy Foundation, American Transmission Company, DuPont Pioneer, Farm Credit, The Mosaic Company and The Lynde and Harry Bradley Foundation.

Members Earn Discounts on Polaris Off-Road Vehicles

Farm Bureau members will receive a manufacturer's incentive discount of $200-$300 depending on the vehicle acquired. Members should negotiate their best deal with their preferred Polaris dealer and then add the manufacturer's incentive discount to the bottom line. There is no limit to the number of incentive discounts that a Farm Bureau member may use so long as it's no more than one per unit acquired and the acquisition(s) is/are made for their personal and/or business use.

The incentive discount(s) is/are shown on invoice as a subtraction from the best-negotiated price of the acquired unit(s).

- Full size utility & sport vehicles (UTV) - $300 per unit
- Full size all-terrain vehicles (ATV) - $200 per unit
- GEM electric vehicles - $300 per unit

To find out more visit wfbf.com/member-benefits.

Don't Forget About the GM Discount

All 2014 and 2015 Chevrolet, Buick, and GMC (except Corvette) models are eligible for the $500 Bonus Cash program. The Bonus Cash program is available with all other offers, excluding discounted pricing (employee, dealership employee and supplier pricing). To qualify for the offer, individuals must be a Wisconsin Farm Bureau member for at least 30 days prior to the date of delivery of the vehicle. The purchaser's driver's license must match the address on record for their Farm Bureau membership. For more details visit wfbf.com/benefits-membership/member-benefits.
