

Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation

Young Farmer and Agriculturist Achievement Award Short Form

Rules for 2015 WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference Competitive Event

Background

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation (WFBF) annually conducts a Young Farmer and Agriculturist (YFA) Achievement Award competitive event. County Farm Bureaus are encouraged to promote this activity. Selection of the winning YFA competitor is based on his/her efforts in production agriculture and leadership achievement. Participation in this program with individual recognition and the resulting publicity will help build the organization. The ideal candidate(s) for the Achievement Award is an individual or couple involved in production agriculture with a majority of his/her income subject to normal production risks. It is recommended that county Farm Bureaus provide, as part of the county recognition award, an expenses-paid trip to the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference held December 4-7, 2015, at the Kalahari Resort in Wisconsin Dells. Appropriate recognition will be given to all the state competitors in attendance at the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference. The WFBF YFA Committee and the WFBF Director of Training and Leadership Development will coordinate the program at the state level.

Information about the Achievement Award applicant is requested on the entry form. ALL INFORMATION IS HANDLED IN STRICT CONFIDENCE AND IS DESTROYED AFTER JUDGING IS COMPLETED.

Eligibility

Competitors must meet the following criteria to compete:

- An applicant can be either an individual or a couple that is married or has spousal-equivalent or similar legal rights under the law applicable in Wisconsin. Applicant may choose to apply individually, rather than as a couple.
- Applicant(s) shall be a Farm Bureau member(s) between the ages of 18 and 35 in good standing with his/her county Farm Bureau. The individual or spouse/spousal-equivalent shall not have reached his/her 36th birthday by January 31.
- Applicant(s) must be actively engaged in farming and/or ranching, with the majority of his/her income coming from production agriculture.
- Applicant(s) may only compete in one national YF&R Competitive Event per year.
- Past and present members of the AFBF Young Farmers & Ranchers Committee and/or their spouse/spousal-equivalent are not eligible to compete.
- Past state YFA Achievement Award winners and/or previous AFBF Achievement Award competitors are not eligible to compete.
- Current employees of county, state and/or American Farm Bureaus and their affiliates are not eligible to compete.

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation YFA Achievement Award recognizes couples as outlined above in the eligibility requirements in this competitive event. This is derived from the names on the applicant line. If the applicant is part of a couple, but only one person is eligible, do not include any details concerning the other person. Each county may submit one entry to be considered for state recognition. Applications of each county winner must be submitted using the WFBF entry form and application.

Entry Form and Application Guidelines

- Do not use your name, name of your county or any names that may bring about the recognition or identification of your county beyond the entry form (p. 3).
- The entry form and application must be completed in first person narrative (i.e. I, me, we, etc.) for questions I-VI. Applicants must use "A1" and "A2" to denote each applicant for all of question VII, and in 10-point Times New Roman font.
- Do not use abbreviations or acronyms.
- Recreating the application on a computer is not allowed; this includes font and format changes, such as bolding.
- The application must be properly signed with no additional pages, including letters of recommendation, scrapbooks or other visual additions.
- Only the named applicant(s) on the entry form are permitted into the interview.
- Counties have permission to reproduce the attached application form.

Note: Disregarding any of the guidelines listed above will result in disqualification.

Judging

- Information contained in the entry form and application is considered confidential.
- The entry form and application of each county entry will be coded upon receipt by WFBF. The applicant's name and county will not be revealed to the judges until judging is completed.
- Values used in judging the applications will be:

Farm Operation and Growth:	50 points
Farm Bureau Leadership:	30 points
Other Leadership:	20 points
Total:	100 points
- The short form application will be judged by a panel of three qualified judges. Each judge may award a maximum of 100 points. The maximum application points a contestant may earn are 300 points.
- The Final Four contestants are chosen based on this system. The final four contestants will complete the long form application which will be used by a three-judge panel to score the long form application and during the interview on Saturday, December 5 at the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference.

Deadline

Each county winner's application is due at the WFBF office no later than 4 p.m. on July 1 to be considered for state recognition and awards.

Applications may be submitted via email to Dale Beaty at dbeaty@wfbf.com or snail mail:

Final Four

The Final Four contestants will be selected by August 14. The Final Four are required to fill out the long form application for consideration as the state winner. The long form application is due at the WFBF office no later than 4 p.m. on October 1.

- Interviews will be held during the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference on Saturday, December 5.
- Interviews may be up to 15 minutes in length and are intended to clear up any "gray areas" which may arise from the written application.
- Judging is based on the application forms sent to WFBF by the county Farm Bureaus and the clarifying interview held during the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference.

Save Your Information

The state WFBF Achievement Award winner's application is sent to AFBF to compete in the national Achievement Award contest. The AFBF national application is slightly different than the WFBF application. The AFBF application is due shortly after the WFBF Annual Meeting and YFA Conference. It is imperative that each contestant save their information so it may be quickly and easily transferred to the AFBF national application.
