

Manure
Confined space
Pit Rescue
Training

ALLENTON FIRE STATION; 431 RAILROAD STREET; ALLENTON, WI 53002

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026

FIRST SESSION: 8:00 AM-11:30AM SECOND SESSION: 12:30 PM-4:30 PM

TO REGISTER:

Questions: Call or text Ron Naab at 262/716-7292 or rjnaab@gmail.com subject—Manure Pit

Farmer participants and firefighters in these training sessions will learn critical information about the hazards of working around manure pits and other confined spaces the importance of air quality monitoring, and how to use body harnesses, life lines, and retrieval equipment. Firefighters and emergency personnel will also learn about the hazards of confined space manure pits and how to safely conduct rescues of victims from these structures.

REGISTRATION FEE: $10.00 per person, IN ADVANCE

Farmers and EMS professionals may come to watch and learn.

Firefighters are required to bring bunker gear and SCBA apparatus.
(Must be clean shaven.)

Max 30 per session. First come, First registered

Lunch provided for both groups from noon-12:30 pm

Sponsored by:

Washington County Fire Training Officers and Dodge County Firefighters Association